

Stars of Tomorrow Stage Show at the S.A.M. Convention

The Society of American Magicians invites young magicians ages seven through 17 to audition for the Stars of Tomorrow Stage Show that will take place during the S.A.M. National Convention, July 23 through 26 at the Golden Nugget Hotel, 129 East Fremont St., Las Vegas, Nevada.

The Stars of Tomorrow Stage Show is a professional show that features young magicians and is among the most popular events at the annual convention.

Each performer will receive a stipend, two convention registrations (one for the performer, the other for a parent or guardian), plus a year's free membership in the Society of Young Magicians.

To audition:

- Submit a video, DVD or Youtube link of the act you plan to perform in the show. The act should be five to 10 minutes long and appropriate for stage. The video does not have to be from an actual show or be professionally produced, but it should include the effects, music or patter, costume and props you would use if selected to perform. No pyrotechnics may be used. You may submit more than one act on the video.
- You must include the attached application form, a brief biography and a photo suitable for printing in the convention program.

The S.A.M. also is looking for a young magician to emcee the Stars of Tomorrow Stage Show. Emcee applicants should also include a sample of introductions, jokes, and emcee bits in their audition videos.

The deadline for receiving applications is April 20, 2012.

Materials cannot be returned.
