

Close-up Stars of Tomorrow at the S.A.M. Convention

The Society of American Magicians invites young magicians ages seven through 17 to audition for Close-up Stars of Tomorrow performances that will take place during the S.A.M. National Convention, July 23 through 26 at the Golden Nugget Hotel, 129 East Fremont St., Las Vegas, Nevada.

The S.A.M. will hire six talented close-magicians to perform as Close-up Stars of Tomorrow at the convention. Each performer will receive a stipend, two convention registrations (one for the performer, the other for a parent or guardian), plus a year's free membership in the Society of Young Magicians. Each performer will have at least two opportunities to perform during the convention.

To audition:

- Submit an eight to ten minute video, DVD or YouTube link of you performing close-up magic. The audition does not have to be professionally produced, but it should show your performance style, costuming and props that you would use if you are selected to perform. You may submit more than one performance segment on the video.
- You must include the attached application form, a brief biography and a photo suitable for printing in the convention program.

You must submit your application by April 20, 2012.
Materials cannot be returned.
